For example, I have a file named "foo.zip" and I want it to be saved as "foo-1.zip". Is that possible? A: If you change the suffix of the filename using os.rename() (or equivalent on other platforms) the file will remain a file object. The Cardiac Resynchronization Therapy (CRT) implantable cardioverter defibrillator (ICD) is an electronic device, which provides a precise and timely therapy for patients who suffer heart failure (HF) due to arrhythmias and conduction disorders. CRT is a technology that has been proved to improve heart failure symptoms, quality of life (QOL) and prolong patient's survival. Despite its benefits, the "research and development" cost is very high due to the numerous clinical trials that must be conducted to prove its efficacy. The identification of the best candidates for implantation (i.
